

Exam Revision Tips

1. Start your revision early
2. Use a study plan
3. Use Study guides
4. Test yourself
5. Take breaks
6. Look after yourself

<https://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/78316.html>

<https://www.sqa.org.uk/sqa/68908.html>

Exam Revision and Preparation Guide

HOW MUCH ARE STUDENTS EXPECTED TO REVISE?

It is expected that pupils studying in the senior phase complete their own, independent revision. Most SQA courses are designed take 240 hours of study. Of this, around 80 hours should be completed at home, equating to 2 hours, per subject, per week.

HOW SHOULD PUPILS PREPARE?

- Revision/Homework timetable
- Set aside which days and times you will be focusing on certain subjects.
- Give each subject sufficient time.
- Parents/carers help the pupils stick to this.
- Find a suitable space
- Remove phones and as many distractions as possible

SOURCES OF REVISION MATERIAL AND HELP

This will differ slightly between subjects, but many resources can be found on

- MS Teams
- Satchel One
- SQA Website
- Textbooks and Homework booklets

There is also a comprehensive offer of Supported Study throughout the year.

“Learning Today For A Better Tomorrow.”

